RITARI HURT AS CAR PLUNGES INTO RIVER

Frost Comes to Entire Northwest Last Night

WEATHER BUREAU PREDICTS ANOTHER FROST TONIGHT

DROP IN TEMPERATURE EXTENDS OVER 2 DAKOTAS, MIN-NESOTA, NORTH WISCONSIN

HEAD OF LAKES REGISTERED 30 DEGREES, RED RIVER VAL-LEY 28, BRAINERD 25

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)— Frost came to the entire northwest
last night and the weather bureau predicted another one tonight.

Many cities reported temperatures below freezing and frost was reported over the two Dakotas, Minnesota and northern Wisconsin.

St. Paul had a low temperature of 35 while both Duluth and Moorhead reported sub-freezing readings. At the head of the lakes it was 30 degrees and 28 in the Red River valley and at Brainerd 25. Rapid City was one of the highest readings with 38 degrees while Devils Lake with 22 degrees was the lowest reported to the weather bureau.

LaCrosse, Wis., reported a reading of 38 with little or no frost although Wausau in the central part of Wisconsin said a heavy frost had damaged crops in that section.

Little rain was predicted and a continued dry cold was expected to last for another 24 hours.

Winnipeg, Man., had a low temperature of 26 last night and The Pas had 22.

OVER 60 DIE IN AUTO ACCIDENTS OVER WEEKEND

Deaths of more than 60 persons in automobile accidents in the United States yesterday were indicated in a United Press survey today.

The number of persons seriously injured from the same cause would be twice as high, the survey showed.

The survey was undertaken in an effort to determine the extent of automobile casualties after the close of the summer touring season.

Minneapolis, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—A score of persons were injured in auto accidents in the Twin Cities over the week-end, a United Press check showed today.

Mrs. Evelyn Tomseth, 44, Minneapolis, died yesterday while helping her husband start their car. She was stricken with a heart attack while helping her husband push the car
over the crest of a hill.

St. Paul, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Police dragged the Mississippi river below the high bridge today searching for the body of Bernard Gangl, 35, who disappeared after parking his car on the bridge. Police believed he had jumped into the river.

Birth Control, Divorce and Immodesty in Dress Considered

Denver, Colo., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Consideration of problems of birth control, divorce, and immodesty in feminine clothes, was scheduled for the tenth annual convention of the National Council of Catholic Women today.

Nearly 1,000 women, from over the United States, were in attendance.

"Christian women are the moral force which holds the world to the ideals of the Catholic church," the Rev. Joseph Scrambs, D. D., bishop of Cleveland, told the delegates last night.

COSTE, BELLONTE VISIT STUDIOS AT HOLLYWOOD

Hollywood, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Dieudonne Coste and Maurice Bellonte, French trans-Atlantic fliers, were taken on a tour of Hollywood's motion picture studios today after spending a quiet day in their hotel Sunday.

The aviators, who will leave Tuesday for El Paso, Texas, arrived here from San Francisco Saturday. En route to El Paso they will make stops at San Diego, Calif., and Phoenix, Ariz.

Robert Buck Seeks to Break Junior Long Flight Record

Newark, N. J., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Robert Buck, 16, took off from the Newark airport at 7:10 a. m. today in an effort to break the junior trans-continental record for a flight to the Pacific coast.
He was not scheduled to leave until an hour later, but impatience got the better of him and he climbed into his plane and headed his plane into a westerly wind.

HENRY FORD IS ATTRACTION AT OBERAMMERGAU

Oberammergau, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—
Henry Ford rivaled the famous Passion Play as an attraction during his visit here. He has been followed by processions whenever he appeared in the streets and avoided large crowds by leaving the back door of the house of Frau Kommerzienrat latched
where he is staying.

Ford attended the last performance of the 1930 Passion Play and was greatly surprised by the lavish scale of production.

"The play surpassed my expectations," Ford said. "I did not expect such a magnificent spectacle."

Mr. and Mrs. Ford and members of their party expected to proceed to Nuremberg today.

WRECKAGE OF FRUIT PACKET
NORTH SHORE FOUND IN LAKE MICHIGAN

BELIEVED TO HAVE GONE DOWN
30 MILES OFF RACINE, WISCONSIN

St. Joseph, Mich., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—
Hope for the rescue of the six persons aboard the fruit packet North Shore was abandoned today after the finding of wreckage of the craft on the shore between South Haven and St. Joseph.

Capt. W. E. Veston of the Grand Haven coast guard reported the North Shore went down about 30 miles off Racine, Wis. Watch is being maintained along the beach for the bodies of Capt. Erwin Anderson, his bride, and his crew of four.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Lake Michigan, serene again after winter's first storm
had taken its toll of at least two ships and five lives, held today the fate of a young captain, his bride of two weeks and his crew of four.

Airplane pilots and coast guardsmen who made an intensive search of the lake practically abandoned hope of ever finding the fruit packet North Shore, which disappeared during Friday's storm with Capt. Erwin Anderson, four sailors, and Anderson's 18-year-old bride aboard. The voyage was intended as the Andersons' honeymoon.

The packet, loaded with grapes, was en route from Benton Harbor, Mich.,
to Milwaukee when it was caught in the 50-mile gale that whipped the lake
into a fury; battered the coast line, sank the barge Salvor and the schooner Our Son and gave lake states the first real taste of winter.

Fear that the North Shore had gone down grew last night when coast guardsmen reported finding many battered crates, believed to have contained grapes, floating near South Haven.

Aviators and coast guardsmen believed the vessel had capsized in the gale just as the Salvor and Our Son had gone before the North Shore was reported missing. The Salvor carried five persons to the bottom. All on board the Our Son were rescued.

Hope was expressed by W. J. Laurie, owner of the North Shore, that it had been swept far from its course by the gale and would be found later. He said the vessel was constructed of steel and carried two lifeboats capable of withstanding a heavy sea.

Although the coast guardsmen believed it would be of no use, they continued the search for the packet today.

All but two of the bodies of the five who lost their lives when the Salvor sank off Muskegon had been recovered. That of Clifford Lane, Muskegon, Mich., was taken from the derrick of the sunken barge Sunday. He died of exposure after clinging to the derrick for hours as it tossed about.

The bodies of Tony Winneske, Detour, and Clarence Brunett, 20, Muskegon, had not been recovered early today.

Harry Smith, 30, Newark, N. J., one of the nine persons rescued after the ship went down, spent his thirtieth birthday in a Muskegon hospital today. He was said to be recovering from shock and exposure. Lynman Needau, 18, Muskegon, another of those rescued, also was recovering. All the others, except Floyd O'Connor, Muskegon, had left the hospitals. O-Connor sustained a foot injury.

The North Shore was believed sighted Friday by an airplane pilot flying the cross lake route of the Kohler Aviation Company, Milwaukee. The boat was then eight hours out of St.
Joseph, Mich.

At 12:15 P. M. on that day, the pilot reported seeing a boat about 35 miles east of Carrollville, Wis. Everything on board seemed to be well, he said. It was about two hours later

THAT PROHIBITION WOULD NOT BE AMONG THEM

ADDRESSES AT CLEVELAND OCT.
2, BOSTON OCT. 6, KING'S MOUNTAIN OCT. 7

By JOSEPH H. BAIRD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Sept. 29.—President Hoover will present the problems and hopes of his administration to the American people this and next week in the first series of speeches he has made since his mid-western tour nearly a year ago.

While the topics Mr. Hoover will discuss are known only to a few, it was said today by a close associate that prohibition would not be among them. The addresses will be at Cleveland Oct. 2; Boston, Oct. 6, and King's Mountain, N. C., Oct. 7.

Mr. Hoover has remained silent since the action of the New York state republicans in adopting a wet stand. He has not answered claim of wets that the republican party is receding from the dry's position assumed in the presidential race of 1928. His associates say he will continue this silence.

On the trip, however, Mr. Hoover will make no bid for New York state support. Both en route to Boston and returning from there he will pass through the state in the early morning.

With prohibition ignored, the president is expected to deal extensively,
and in an optimistic tone, with economic problems. His appearance before the American Federation of Labor in Boston will give him an excellent opportunity to outline what the administration has done or hopes to do for labor. The farmer and the business worker, likewise, may get their particular message.

Mr. Hoover will leave the capital on Wednesday, stopping in Philadelphia en route to Cleveland to see the opening world series game. He will address the American Bankers' Association Thursday night, and return to the White House Friday. Sunday night he will entrain for Boston, speaking Monday before the American Legion and the A. F. of L. He will leave Boston that night for King's Mountain.

FIND BODY OF VICTOR KETTUNEN

INQUEST BEING HELD INTO DEATH OF ALLEGED SLAYER
OF TWO WOMEN

Virginia, Minn., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—St.
Louis county officials today held an inquest into the death of Victor Kettunen, 38, alleged slayer of two women because one of them refused to return his love.

A woman and three boys out on a Sunday hike found the body in a clump of bushes near Virginia.

As officials reconstructed the slay-ing and apparent suicide, they said
Kettunen killed Mrs. Lydia Ahlgren, 15, and Mrs. Mabel Hoy, 40, after asking them to go for a ride into the country with him on Sept. 19. In his flight after slaying the two, Kettunen came back to Virginia early the following morning and changed his blood stained clothing for a grey suit, which he wore when his body was found yesterday. Officials believe that he became moody while leaving Virginia and killed himself rather than attempt to elude the police.

Since the finding of the two bodies near Kettunen's blood stained automobile shortly after the double slaying, police had searched for Kettunen.
When he was not found for some days, officers said they believed they would find his body, a suicide.

that the Salvor and Our Son floundered in the heavy seas.

J. A. Olander, chief of the Racine coast guard station, said that if the North Shore's cargo had been dumped overboard, the boat might have drifted swiftly before the wind. The crew might even be alive in one of the life boats, he indicated, adding, however,
that this was extremely unlikely.

Other navigation officials and coast guardsmen were pessimistic today in their hopes of finding the packet.

PARLOR FURNITURE MOVED TO COURT AS AN EXHIBIT

Chicago, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—All of Mrs. Florence Leoney's parlor furniture was moved into Judge Sabath's court room today and arranged just as it had been in the Leoney home.

The trial of Mrs. Leoney on charges of killing her husband was starting, and the state wanted to prove by positions of the chairs, tables, etc., that her story of self defense was impossible.

AIM OF REP. HAMILTON FISH AND HIS CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE

BUSINESS CONDUCT COMMITTEE OF CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE
ALSO INVESTIGATES

Chicago, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—A complete investigation of charges that Russia was responsible for driving American wheat prices to their lowest level since 1906 was the aim today of Rep.
Hamilton Fish and his congressional committee on Communist propaganda.

The house committee which Rep.
Fish heads had just completed a hearing in New York, at which propaganda was taken up in a general way with startling disclosures, but the specific intent of the hearing here was to air
in detail Secretary of Agriculture Hyde's charges against the Soviet.

A similar investigation, opened last week by the business conduct committee of the Chicago board of trade, resulted in the board's directors issuing an order stopping all short selling of wheat by agents of Russia.

That order has been criticized severely by some traders, among them Samuel P. Arnot, former president of the Board of Trade, who pointed out that the Chicago exchange was a world market and charged that the directors had "transcended their authority."

Among those scheduled to testify
before the house committee today
were President John A. Bunnell of the board of trade and Joseph W. Badenoch, chairman of the business committee.

CHARGED WITH AMBUSH SLAYING OF GAME WARDEN

J. GOULD HEATH ON TRIAL FOR ALLEGED KILLING OF NOR-MAN D. FAIRBANKS

SELECTION OF JURY CONSUMES
FIRST DAY, 5 SELECTED UP TO NOON HOUR

Grand Forks, Minn., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)— Charged with the ambush slaying of Norman D. Fairbanks, Hibbing game warden, J. Gould Heath, north woods trapper, went on trial for first degree murder in district court today.

Selection of a jury occupied opening hours of the court session. At noon five jurors, four men and one woman, had been selected.

W. B. Taylor, Itasca county attorney, is in charge of the prosecution.

Heath was said to have confessed the killing but later repudiated the confession, Taylor said.

Heath was captured after one of the greatest manhunts in the history of northern Minnesota.

Fairbanks was shot early in April
when he sought to question some men concerning alleged illegal trapping activities. With a companion he had gone to an isolated north woods cabin.
As he was leaving a shot was fired from a window, wounding him.

With his companion, he made his way back to Hibbing where he died later in the hospital as a result of the wound and pneumonia brought on by exposure.

More than 100 rangers, deputy sheriffs and woodsmen formed posses and tracked through the northern forests seeking the slayer. More than a month later Heath was captured. His son who was with him at the time was slain resisting arrest.

directors had "transcended their authority."

Among those scheduled to testify
before the house committee today
were President John A. Bunnell of the board of trade and Joseph W. Badenoch, chairman of the business committee.

SINKS; SEVEN SAVED

The timely arrival of a freighter resulted in the rescue of Capt. Fred Nelson, 73, and his crew of six men from the lumber schooner Our Son (above), which sunk in the terrific gale off Sheboygan, Wis., Thursday night. Our Son was the last survivor of the great sailing fleet which once operated in the carrying trade on the Great Lakes.

FOURTH WARD ALDERMAN RES-CUED FROM WATER BY PASSING MOTORISTS

PULWOOD BREAKS SPEED, PRE-VENTS CAR FROM CONTINU-ING TO DEEPER WATER

Ernest Ritari, 1123 East Norwood Street, alderman of the fourth ward, narrowly escaped death Saturday evening when the Ford Tudor he was driving crashed through the guard rail south of the Merrifield road bridge in the city limits and rolled over twice down a 35-foot embankment into the Mississippi river.

The alderman is reported from the St. Joseph's hospital today as being out of danger. His head, cut from being thrown against the broken glass of the left front window, is swathed in bandages. No bones were broken although his wounds and bodily injuries are painful.

Mr. Ritari was driving alone towards Brainerd when the accident occurred about 7:30 P. M. He had crossed the bridge. Tracks of his car on the road showed he had gone off
the shoulder of the tarried highway, careened dangerously at the edge and then after several yards he had pulled his car back on the highway. The tracks show the car cut back across the highway at a 45 degree angle and that it then crashed almost straight into the guard rail, smashing it to splinters, the car rolling over twice headlong down the steep drop and out into the water, where it stopped almost right side up. Pulpwood sticks in the river, the property of the Northwest Paper Co., saved him from possible drowning in his car, as they prevented the car from turning over further into deeper water.

George McCarthy, 406 Fourth Ave.
N. E., an occupant of a truck; Floyd A.
Thompson, 306 North 9th Street,
and Lester P. Hickerson, South 10th Street, occupants of Thompson's car, were a short distance behind the Ritari vehicle. They slid down the decline, jumped into the water and pulled
Mr. Ritari from it. The alderman, dazed and bleeding profusely, had gotten out of the door on the driver's side and was floundering about in the water. He had evidently become confused in his directions and instead of working his way towards the bank of the river, was going farther into the stream. Had he stumbled a few feet farther he would have gone off the drop-off, sinking under the pulpwood logs.

The Ritari car was leaning on its right side in about five feet of water.
A few inches farther on that side
the river takes a sudden drop. Only the presence of the pulpwood prevented the car and occupant from crashing its way further on into deeper water.

Carried to the road, Alderman Ritari was so dazed he was unable to answer intelligently questions piled to him. To his rescuers' questions he continued to reply "no." Fearing that Mr. Ritari had a companion, McCarthy, Hickerson and Thompson immediately returned to the car, searching it and the water surrounding it. Meanwhile Ritari was rushed to the hospital and word was sent to the authorities to help ascertain whether anyone else had been in the car.

Tyrolm's wrecking truck arrived on the scene and after two hours' efforts, dragged the damaged car up the steep incline to the highway.

Many motorists passed the scene of the accident shortly after the crash not knowing what had occurred, as Mr. Ritari's car was lying so far below the highway that it was not easily discernible from the road above.

"The conscience of America cries
out in rebellion against this regime
of distress, indifference, inertia, incompetence and unwillingness to take action," Senator Wagner said in his address. "It demands a change at Washington, a change from the helplessness
and despair which now characterize
the administration's attitude toward
our greatest problem."

The administration's relief for farm
depression, he said, "was a campaign
of speech-making to curtail production."

Protection, Wagner said, is not an issue, but the "trade-destroying, ill-will creating tariff of 1930 is an issue."

Applause greeted Wagner's statement that prohibition was an error,
"bad in theory and worse in practice."
He made the unreserved declaration
that the 18th amendment should be repealed so that "we may gain the
blessings of civilized government."

NEW POWER PLANT OF GREAT NORTHERN AT WILLISTON, N. D.

Williston, N. D., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Ex-cavators today started work on the foundation of a new $145,000 power plant being erected by the Great Northern Railway Co. The plant will be used to furnish hot water for locomotives in the round house.

Construction of the plant will enable the railroad to use local lignite slack burned with stoker feed in the plant, eliminating high priced coal used in firing the engines.

PRINCE LEOPOLD OF BAVARIA DIES OF PNEUMONIA, SENILITY

Munich, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Prince Leopold of Bavaria, 84, died of pneumonia and senility Sunday. Leopold succeeded Field Marshal Paul von Hindenburg as commander in chief of the German troops on the eastern front during the world war.

Leopold was the second son of Prince Leopold, last regent of Bavaria. He commanded the troops that occupied Warsaw in 1916 and attained the rank of General under von Hindenburg.

MYSTERIOUS THEFT OF 2 MAIL POUCHES IN U. S. AIR MAIL

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—
The mysterious theft of two mail pouches, first such loss in the history of the U. S. air mail, today puzzled postal and police authorities of Kansas City.

The pouches, one of which contained 30 pounds of registered mail of undetermined value, were stolen while four employees and two pilots were transferring mail in a motor truck from the Chicago-Kansas City plane to an outbound Kansas City-Dallas ship.

The second pouch weighed only two pounds and contained ordinary mail matter, authorities said.

N. Y. DEMOCRATS POINT TO ROOSEVELT AS A CANDIDATE

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL STAND-ARD BEARER FOR THE PARTY IN 1932

IN SPEECHES AND IN INFORMAL DISCUSSIONS THEY ATTACK
HOOVER REGIME

By THOMAS G. FORD

Convention Hall, Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 29.—New York democrats at their state convention today struck what observers believed to be the keynote on which they hope to make Franklin D. Roosevelt the democratic candidate for the presidency in 1932.

In speeches and in informal discussions, they attacked the administration of President Hoover which they charged with failure of leadership and with responsibility for the industrial and economic depression rather than comment on state issues.

Tammany Hall was much in evidence.

John F. Curry was an active participant in conferences and in the convention. So was former Gov. Alfred E.
Smith. Senator Robert F. Wagner was the temporary chairman while a Tammany man was made head of the platform committee.

Wagner was given a big ovation at the close of his speech, delegates standing and cheering for several minutes.

The convention adjourned until 7:30 P. M. while the resolutions and the permanent organization committees planned to devote the afternoon to their meetings.

"The conscience of America cries
out in rebellion against this regime
of distress, indifference, inertia, incom-
petence and unwillingness to take action," Senator Wagner said in his address. "It demands a change at Washington, a change from the helplessness
and despair which now characterize
the administration's attitude toward
our greatest problem."

The administration's relief for farm
depression, he said, "was a campaign
of speech-making to curtail production."

Protection, Wagner said, is not an
issue, but the "trade-destroying, ill-will
creating tariff of 1930 is an issue."

Applause greeted Wagner's statement that prohibition was an error,
"bad in theory and worse in practice."
He made the unreserved declaration
that the 18th amendment should be
blessings of civilized government."

FIRE BREAKS OUT IN THE PARA-MOUNT CAFE, GUESTS IN NEARBY HOTELS FLEE

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)— Thousands of people jammed the loop
last night to watch firemen battle a 2-11 alarm in a downtown restaurant.

The fire broke out in the Paramount Cafe shortly before midnight. Principal loop thoroughfares were jammed with fire apparatus and spectators for several hours as firemen fought a stubborn fire that spread from the basement through a two-story structure.

Guests in adjoining hotels were driven from their rooms by smoke.

Fire Captain James S. Rydell was rescued from the smoke-filled interior
by fireman William J. Hollenbeck.
Captain Rydell had invaded the burning structure to seek the heart of the fire and was under the balcony when it collapsed. He was burned about the face, suffered a wrenched back and two broken ribs. He was under treatment at general hospital.

Frost Comes to Entire Northwest Last Night

WEATHER BUREAU PREDICTS ANOTHER FROST TONIGHT

HEAD OF LAKES REGISTERED 30 DEGREES, RED RIVER VALLEY 28, BRAINERD 25

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Frost came to the entire northwest last night and the weather bureau predicted another one tonight.

Many cities reported temperatures below freezing and frost was reported over the two Dakotas, Minnesota and northern Wisconsin.

St. Paul had a low temperature of 35 while both Duluth and Moorhead reported sub-freezing readings. At the head of the lakes it was 30 degrees and 28 in the Red River valley and at Brainerd 25. Rapid City was one of the highest readings with 38 degrees while Devils Lake with 22 degrees was the lowest reported to the weather bureau.

LaCrosse, Wis., reported a reading of 38 with little or no frost although Wausau in the central part of Wisconsin said a heavy frost had damaged crops in that section.

Little rain was predicted and a continued dry cold was expected to last for another 24 hours.

Winnipeg, Man., had a low temperature of 26 last night and The Pas had 22.

OVER 60 DIE IN AUTO ACCIDENTS OVER WEEKEND

Deaths of more than 60 persons in automobile accidents in the United States yesterday were indicated in a United Press survey today.

The number of persons seriously injured from the same cause would be twice as high, the survey showed.

The survey was undertaken in an effort to determine the extent of automobile casualties after the close of the summer touring season.

Minneapolis, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—A score of persons were injured in auto accidents in the Twin Cities over the weekend, a United Press check showed today.

Mrs. Evelyn Tomseth, 44, Minneapolis, died yesterday while helping her husband start their car. She was stricken with a heart attack while helping her husband push the car over the crest of a hill.

St. Paul, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Police dragged the Mississippi river below the high bridge today searching for the body of Bernard Gangl, 35, who disappeared after parking his car on the bridge. Police believed he had jumped into the river.

Birth Control, Divorce and Immodesty in Dress Considered

Denver, Colo., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Consideration of problems of birth control, divorce, and immodesty in feminine clothes, was scheduled for the tenth annual convention of the National Council of Catholic Women today.

Nearly 1,000 women, from over the United States, were in attendance. "Christian women are the moral force which holds the world to the ideals of the Catholic church," the Rev. Joseph Scramble, D. D., bishop of Cleveland, told the delegates last night.

COSTE, BELLONTE VISIT STUDIOS AT HOLLYWOOD

Hollywood, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Dieudonne Coste and Maurice Bellonte, French trans-Atlantic fliers, were taken on a tour of Hollywood's motion picture studios today after spending a quiet day in their hotel Sunday.

The aviators, who will leave Tuesday for El Paso, Texas, arrived here from San Francisco Saturday. En route to El Paso they will make stops at San Diego, Calif., and Phoenix, Ariz.

Robert Buck Seeks to Break Junior Long Flight Record

Newark, N. J., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Robert Buck, 16, took off from the Newark airport at 7:10 a. m. today in an effort to break the junior trans-continental record for a flight to the Pacific coast. He was not scheduled to leave until an hour later, but impatience got the better of him and he climbed into his plane and headed his plane into a westerly wind.

WRECKAGE OF FRUIT PACKET NORTH SHORE FOUND IN LAKE MICHIGAN

BELIEVED TO HAVE GONE DOWN 30 MILES OFF RACINE, WISCONSIN

St. Joseph, Mich., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Hope for the rescue of the six persons aboard the fruit packet North Shore was abandoned today after the finding of wreckage of the craft on the shore between South Haven and St. Joseph.

Capt. W. E. Veston of the Grand Haven coast guard reported the North Shore went down about 30 miles off Racine, Wis. Watch is being maintained along the beach for the bodies of Capt. Erwin Anderson, his bride, and his crew of four.

Chicago, Sept. 29.—Lake Michigan, serene again after winter's first storm had taken its toll of at least two ships and five lives, held today the fate of a young captain, his bride of two weeks and his crew of four.

Airplane pilots and coast guardsmen who made an intensive search of the lake practically abandoned hope of ever finding the fruit packet North Shore, which disappeared during Friday's storm with Capt. Erwin Anderson, four sailors, and Anderson's 18-year-old bride aboard. The voyage was intended as the Anderson's honeymoon.

The packet, loaded with grapes, was en route from Benton Harbor, Mich., to Milwaukee when it was caught in the 50-mile gale that whipped the lake into a fury, battered the coast line, sank the barge Salvor and the schooner Our Son and gave lake states the first real taste of winter.

Fear that the North Shore had gone down grew last night when coast guardsmen reported finding many battered crates, believed to have contained grapes, floating near South Haven.

Aviators and coast guardsmen believed the vessel had capsized in the gale just as the Salvor and Our Son had gone before the North Shore was reported missing. The Salvor carried five persons to the bottom. All on board the Our Son were rescued.

Hope was expressed by W. J. Laurie, owner of the North Shore, that it had been swept far from its course by the gale and would be found later. He said the vessel was constructed of steel and carried two lifeboats capable of withstanding a heavy sea.

Although the coast guardsmen believed it would be of no use, they continued the search for the packet today.

All but two of the bodies of the five who lost their lives when the Salvor sank off Muskegon had been recovered. That of Clifford Lane, Muskegon, Mich., was taken from the derrick of the sunken barge Sunday. He died of exposure after clinging to the derrick for hours as it tossed about.

The bodies of Tony Winneske, Detroit, and Clarence Brunett, 20, Muskegon, had not been recovered early today.

Harry Smith, 30, Newark, N. J., one of the nine persons rescued after the ship went down, spent his thirtieth birthday in a Muskegon hospital today. He was said to be recovering from shock and exposure. Lynnman Needau, 18, Muskegon, another of those rescued, also was recovering. All the others, except Floyd O'Connor, Muskegon, had left the hospitals. O'Connor sustained a foot injury.

The North Shore was believed sighted Friday by an airplane pilot flying the cross lake route of the Kohler Aviation Company, Milwaukee. The boat was then eight hours out of St. Joseph, Mich.

At 12:15 P. M. on that day, the pilot reported seeing a boat about 35 miles due east of Carrollville, Wis. Everything on board seemed to be well, he said. It was about two hours later

SAID BY CLOSE ASSOCIATES THAT PROHIBITION WOULD NOT BE AMONG THEM

ADDRESSES AT CLEVELAND OCT. 2, BOSTON OCT. 6, KING'S MOUNTAIN OCT. 7

By JOSEPH H. BAIRD (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Sept. 29.—President Hoover will present the problems and hopes of his administration to the American people this and next week in the first series of speeches he has made since his mid-western tour nearly a year ago.

While the topics Mr. Hoover will discuss are known only to a few, it was said today by a close associate that prohibition would not be among them. The addresses will be at Cleveland Oct. 2, Boston, Oct. 6, and King's Mountain, N. C., Oct. 7.

Mr. Hoover has remained silent since the action of the New York state republicans in adopting a wet stand. He has not answered claim of wets that the republican party is receding from the dry's position assumed in the presidential race of 1928. His associates say he will continue this silence.

On the trip, however, Mr. Hoover will make no bid for New York state support. Both en route to Boston and returning from there he will pass through the state in the early morning.

With prohibition ignored, the president is expected to deal extensively, and in an optimistic note, with economic problems. His appearance before the American Federation of Labor in Boston will give him an excellent opportunity to outline what the administration has done or hopes to do for labor. The farmer and the business worker, likewise, may get their particular message.

Mr. Hoover will leave the capital on Wednesday, stopping in Philadelphia en route to Cleveland to see the opening world series game. He will address the American Bankers' Association Thursday night, and return to the White House Friday. Sunday night he will entrain for Boston, speaking Monday before the American Legion and the A. F. of L. He will leave Boston that night for King's Mountain.

FIND BODY OF VICTOR KETTUNEN

INQUEST BEING HELD INTO DEATH OF ALLEGED SLAYER OF TWO WOMEN

Virginia, Minn., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—St. Louis county officials today held an inquest into the death of Victor Kettunen, 38, alleged slayer of two women because one of them refused to return his love.

A woman and three boys out on a Sunday hike found the body in a clump of bushes near Virginia.

As officials reconstructed the slaying and apparent suicide, they said Kettunen killed Mrs. Lydia Ahlgren, 15, and Mrs. Mabel Hoey, 40, after asking them to go for a ride into the country with him on Sept. 19. In his flight after slaying the two, Kettunen came back to Virginia early the following morning and changed his blood stained clothing for a grey suit, which he wore when his body was found yesterday. Officials believe that he became moody while leaving Virginia and killed himself rather than attempt to elude the police.

Since the finding of the two bodies near Kettunen's blood stained automobile shortly after the double slaying, police had searched for Kettunen. When he was not found for some days, officers said they believed they would find his body, a suicide.

that the Salvor and Our Son floundered in the heavy seas.

J. A. Olander, chief of the Racine coast guard station, said that if the North Shore's cargo had been dumped overboard, the boat might have drifted swiftly before the wind. The crew might even be alive in one of the life boats, he indicated, adding, however, that this was extremely unlikely.

Other navigation officials and coast guardsmen were pessimistic today in their hopes of finding the packet.

PARLOR FURNITURE MOVED TO COURT AS AN EXHIBIT

Chicago, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—All of Mrs. Florence Leeney's parlor furniture was moved into Judge Sabbath's court room today and arranged just as it had been in the Leeney home.

The trial of Mrs. Leeney on charges of killing her husband was starting, and the state wanted to prove by positions of the chairs, tables, etc., that her story of self defense was impossible.

PROBE CHARGES OF RUSS WHEAT MANIPULATIONS

AIM OF REP. HAMILTON FISH AND HIS CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE

BUSINESS CONDUCT COMMITTEE OF CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE ALSO INVESTIGATES

Chicago, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—A complete investigation of charges that Russia was responsible for driving American wheat prices to their lowest level since 1906 was the aim today of Rep. Hamilton Fish and his congressional committee on Communist propaganda.

The house committee which Rep. Fish heads had just completed a hearing in New York, at which propaganda was taken up in a general way with startling disclosures, but the specific intent of the hearing here was to air in detail Secretary of Agriculture Hyde's charges against the Soviet.

A similar investigation, opened last week by the business conduct committee of the Chicago board of trade, resulted in the board's directors issuing an order stopping all short selling of wheat by agents of Russia.

That order has been criticized severely by some traders, among them Samuel P. Arnot, former president of the Board of Trade, who pointed out that the Chicago exchange was a world market and charged that the

CHARGED WITH AMBUSH SLAYING OF GAME WARDEN

J. GOULD HEATH ON TRIAL FOR ALLEGED KILLING OF NORMAN D. FAIRBANKS

SELECTION OF JURY CONSUMES FIRST DAY, 5 SELECTED UP TO NOON HOUR

Grand Forks, Minn., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Charged with the ambush slaying of Norman D. Fairbanks, Hibbing game warden, J. Gould Heath, north woods trapper, went on trial for first degree murder in district court today.

Selection of a jury occupied opening hours of the court session. At noon five jurors, four men and one woman, had been selected.

W. E. Taylor, Itasca county attorney, is in charge of the prosecution. Heath was said to have confessed the killing but later repudiated the confession, Taylor said.

Heath was captured after one of the greatest manhunts in the history of northern Minnesota.

Fairbanks was shot early in April when he sought to question some men concerning alleged illegal trapping activities. With a companion he had gone to an isolated north woods cabin. As he was leaving a shot was fired from a window, wounding him.

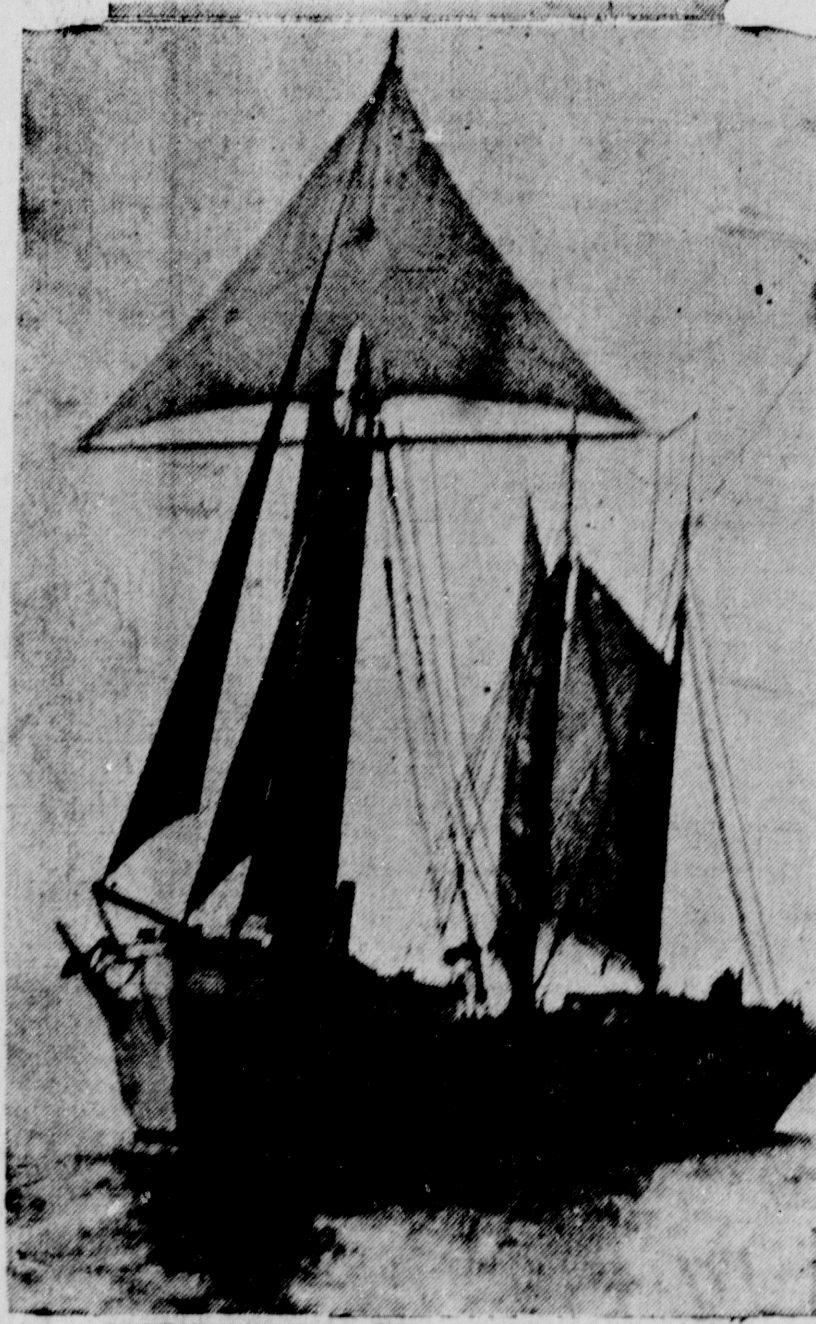

With his companion, he made his way back to Hibbing where he died later in the hospital as a result of the wound and pneumonia brought on by exposure.

More than 100 rangers, deputy sheriffs and woodsmen formed posses and tracked through the northern forests seeking the slayer. More than a month later Heath was captured. His son who was with him at the time was slain resisting arrest.

directors had "transcended their authority."

Among those scheduled to testify before the house committee today were President John A. Bunnell of the board of trade and Joseph W. Badenoch, chairman of the business conduct committee.

SINKS; SEVEN SAVED

The timely arrival of a freighter resulted in the rescue of Capt. Fred Nelson, 73, and his crew of six men from the lumber schooner Our Son (above), which sunk in the terrific gale off Sheboygan, Wis., Thursday night. Our Son was the last survivor of the great sailing fleet which once operated in the carrying trade on the Great Lakes.

MYSTERIOUS THEFT OF 2 MAIL POUCHES IN U. S. AIR MAIL

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—The mysterious theft of two mail pouches, first such loss in the history of the U. S. air mail, today puzzled postal and police authorities of Kansas City.

The pouches, one of which contained 30 pounds of registered mail of undetermined value, were stolen while four employees and two pilots were transferring mail in a motor truck from the Chicago-Kansas City plane to an outbound Kansas City-Dallas ship.

The second pouch weighed only two pounds and contained ordinary mail matter, authorities said.

N. Y. DEMOCRATS POINT TO ROOSEVELT AS A CANDIDATE

DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL STANDARD BEARER FOR THE PARTY IN 1932

IN SPEECHES AND IN INFORMAL DISCUSSIONS THEY ATTACK HOOVER REGIME

By THOMAS G. FORD (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Convention Hall, Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 29.—New York democrats at their state convention today struck what observers believed to be the keynote on which they hope to make Franklin D. Roosevelt the democratic candidate for the presidency in 1932.

In speeches and in informal discussions, they attacked the administration of President Hoover which they charged with failure of leadership and with responsibility for the industrial and economic depression rather than comment on state issues.

Tammany Hall was much in evidence.

John F. Curry was an active participant in conferences and in the convention. So was former Gov. Alfred E. Smith. Senator Robert F. Wagner was the temporary chairman while a Tammany man was made head of the platform committee.

Wagner was given a big ovation at the close of his speech, delegates standing and cheering for several minutes.

The convention adjourned until 7:30 P. M. while the resolutions and the permanent organization committees planned to devote the afternoon to their meetings.

"The conscience of America cries out in rebellion against this regime of distress, indifference, inertia, incompetence and unwillingness to take action," Senator Wagner said in his address. "It demands a change at Washington, a change from the helplessness and despair which now characterize the administration's attitude toward our greatest problem."

The administration's relief for farm depression, he said, "was a campaign of speech-making to curtail production."

Protection, Wagner said, is not an issue, but the "trade-destroying, ill-will creating tariff of 1930 is an issue."

Applause greeted Wagner's statement that prohibition was an error, "bad in theory and worse in practice." He made the unreserved declaration that the 18th amendment should be repealed so that "we may gain the blessings of civilized government."

FIRE BREAKS OUT IN THE PARAMOUNT CAFE, GUESTS IN NEARBY HOTELS FLEE

Minneapolis, Minn., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Thousands of people jammed the loop last night to watch firemen battle a 2-11 alarm in a downtown restaurant. The fire broke out in the Paramount Cafe shortly before midnight. Principal loop thoroughfares were jammed with fire apparatus and spectators for several hours as firemen fought a stubborn fire that spread from the basement through a two-story structure.

Guests in adjoining hotels were driven from their rooms by smoke.

Fire Captain James S. Rydell was rescued from the smoke-filled interior by fireman William J. Hollenbeck. Captain Rydell had invaded the burning structure to seek the heart of the fire and was under the balcony when it collapsed. He was burned about the face, suffered a wrenched back and two broken ribs. He was under treatment at general hospital.

FOURTH WARD ALDERMAN RESCUED FROM WATER BY PASSING MOTORISTS

PULPWOOD BREAKS SPEED, PREVENTS CAR FROM CONTINUING TO DEEPER WATER

Ernest Ritari, 1123 East Norwood Street, alderman of the fourth ward, narrowly escaped death Saturday evening when the Ford Tudor he was driving crashed through the guard rail south of the Merrifield road bridge in the city limits and rolled over twice down a 35-foot embankment into the Mississippi river.

The alderman is reported from the St. Joseph's hospital today as being out of danger. His head, cut from being thrown against the broken glass of the left front window, is swathed in bandages. No bones were broken although his wounds and bodily injuries are painful.

Mr. Ritari was driving alone towards Brainerd when the accident occurred about 7:30 P. M. He had crossed the bridge. Tracks of his car on the road showed he had gone off the shoulder of the traveled highway, careened dangerously at the edge and then after several yards he had pulled his car back on the highway. The tracks show the car cut back across the highway at a 45 degree angle and that it then crashed almost straight into the guard rail, smashing it to splinters, the car rolling over twice headlong down the steep drop and out into the water, where it stopped almost right side up. Pulpwood sticks in the river, the property of the Northwest Paper Co., saved him from possible drowning in his car, as they prevented the car from turning over further into deeper water.

George McCarthy, 406 Fourth Ave. N. E., an occupant of a truck; Floyd A. Thompson, 306 North 9th Street, and Lester P. Hickerson, South 10th Street, occupants of Thompson's car, were a short distance behind the Ritari vehicle. They slid down the decline, jumped into the water and pulled Mr. Ritari from it. The alderman, dazed and bleeding profusely, had gotten out of the door on the driver's side and was floundering about in the water. He had evidently become confused in his directions and instead of working his way towards the bank of the river, was going farther into the stream. Had he stumbled a few feet farther he would have gone off the drop-off, sinking under the pulpwood logs.

The Ritari car was leaning on its right side in about five feet of water. A few inches farther on that side the river takes a sudden drop. Only the presence of the pulpwood prevented the car and occupant from crashing its way further on into deeper water.

Carried to the road, Alderman Ritari was so dazed he was unable to answer intelligently questions piled to him. To his rescuers' questions he continued to reply "no." Fearing that Mr. Ritari had a companion, McCarthy, Hickerson and Thompson immediately returned to the car, searching it and the water surrounding it. Meanwhile Ritari was rushed to the hospital and word was sent to the authorities to help ascertain whether anyone else had been in the car.

Tyrolm's wrecking truck arrived on the scene and after two hours' efforts, dragged the damaged car up the steep incline to the highway.

Many motorists passed the scene of the accident shortly after the crash not knowing what had occurred, as Mr. Ritari's car was lying so far below the highway that it was not easily discernible from the road above.

NEW POWER PLANT OF GREAT NORTHERN AT WILLISTON, N. D.

Williston, N. D., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Excavators today started work on the foundation of a new $145,000 power plant being erected by the Great Northern Railway Co. The plant will be used to furnish hot water for locomotives in the round house. Construction of the plant will enable the railroad to use local lignite slack burned with stoker feed in the plant, eliminating high priced coal used in firing the engines.

PRINCE LEOPOLD OF BAVARIA DIES OF PNEUMONIA, SENILITY

Munich, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Prince Leopold of Bavaria, 84, died of pneumonia and senility Sunday. Leopold succeeded Field Marshal Paul von Hindenburg as commander in chief of the German troops on the eastern front during the world war.

Leopold was the second son of Prince Leopold, last regent of Bavaria. He commanded the troops that occupied Warsaw in 1918 and attained the rank of General under von Hindenburg.

F. W. Dunlop, the engineer of the Superior division who arrived on the way freight this noon, states that his train was 19 hours on the road between here and Duluth. This is on account of the big wheat traffic at the present time.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Hutchins was injured in a runaway accident at Little Elk where the child has been visiting his grand parents. Mrs. Hutchins left today for Little Elk.

G. A. Keene and Dr. Hemstead left for the eastern part of the county this morning on business.

Prof. William Graham left for Staples this afternoon where he will visit for a day or two.

Supt. Hartley reports that the schools are in a better condition than they have ever been at this time of the year. The attendance is good and considerable time and careful consideration has been put on the arrangement of teachers, etc. with the result that the system was never more satisfactory than at present.

The second Market Day for Brainerd has been set for Saturday, October 7. The citizens of Brainerd are trying to establish a general market day, and if farmers will do their part to make it a permanent success, it will be to mutual advantage. Prizes will be given for stock brought in and sold.

Return from 5 Months Spent Touring Sweden

Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, 714 South Sixth street returned last evening to their home after spending the past five and a half months abroad. They visited at Stockholm, Sweden, toured almost the entire country, but spending the majority of their time in the southern part where their old homes were. They also visited a sister of Mrs. Johnson who made her home in New York for 40 years, and now has returned to Sweden.

They arrived in New York September 15 and visited for a few days with relatives there, also in southern Wisconsin en route to Brainerd.

HEARINGS ON EQUALIZATION OF ASSESSMENTS

St. Paul, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Dates for a series of hearings on equalization of assessments for tax purposes, the first of which will be Tuesday, were announced today by the Minnesota Tax commission.

A hearing on banks Tuesday will consider proposed changes effecting about 200 banks in the state.

County hearings will be on Wednesday. The commission reported that tax valuations in the counties generally are lower this year than two years ago.

Hearings on mineral taxes, involving the iron ore regions, will be Oct. 7 and the power and light hearings on Oct. 9.

Glorious Welcome for Freshmen

COMMITTEES working months in preparation, last week staged a most glorious welcome ceremony for the freshmen at the University of Minnesota, the program lasting a week, getting them acquainted with each other, with upper classmen, with instructors and in fact everything concerned with the institution. These get-togethers and other social events did much to banish that homesick feeling which assails the freshie when transplanted into new surroundings.

It convinced the freshman that the great university has a warm place in its heart for him, if one may use such a metaphor. The week's program served as an "ice breaker," crushing any spirit of cold reserve which tradition says armors the upper classmen.

More than 1,500 newly enrolled men students flocked to the men's mixer in the Minnesota Union on Friday night. There were boxing bouts, band music, special acts, short talks, etc. Coach Crisler told of the time when he arrived at the University of Chicago and he felt so lonely and neglected that he nearly packed up and went home again. He stressed as a contrast the value of the week of welcoming as prepared at the University of Minnesota.

Freshmen co-eds gathered in Shevlin hall for their program. Saturday night the field house was transformed into a carnival with more fun than a country circus. Not a freshie was a wall flower.

Given such a start at the university every freshman was in fine shape this morning to commence his studies and to survive the ordeal of his first year.

Minnesota Has Three Teams, and Then Some

"Has Minnesota a team this year?"

What a superfluous question. This grand old university of the North whose athletic destinies and especially its football are in the hands of Fritz Crisler, has three teams and then some.

All the state thrilled when it saw three distinct teams in action against South Dakota State, three teams reflecting the Crisler feints, attacks and defensive, and winning 48 to 0. Never before has Minnesota seen a coach make wholesale substitutions of a team at a time. The first quarter saw the first team in action with a rather weak line. The second period with the second team substituted brought in touchdowns and the line held better. The third quarter found the first team back, profiting by seeing the others in action, and the last quarter brought the third stringers into action.

Rockne has his shock troops and regulars, but no coach has flashed three teams into action like Crisler and it took old grads and newcomers by surprise. And such a wealth of material! It brought out a McDougall who plunged his way to two touchdowns, a lad so slight in physique that Spears would never have given him a chance.

Next day many saw the Red Jackets battle the Chicago Cardinals to a 7 to 7 tie. It was old time foundation football, mass plays, line attacks. Once in a while Joesting or Nydahl would break through and a flash of color was Pape's sprint to a touchdown. The Cardinals did not uncork any open play until the last few minutes when their aerial attack opened.

Problem of Safety on Highways

IN the last analysis the problem of safety on the roads boils down to the human factor. An unsafe driver is unsafe behind the tightest brakes and the best mechanism ever evolved. A good driver is a minor peril even though his car be defective; he will know its weaknesses and make allowance for them.

Nor is more speed the danger it is often supposed to be, nor is youth so dangerous as inexperienced old age. Connecticut permits children of 16 to drive and has no speed limit, merely barring "unreasonable" driving. That state has shown an actual reduction in its fatality rate last year. Many state reports indicate that the older driver gets into more accidents than "reckless youth."

The worst accident rates are in states which do not require a thorough examination of applicants for a driver's license. The menace arises because of people who should not be allowed to operate machines.

If the reckless drivers are not eliminated, if killings continue to mount in such appalling measure as in this last year, the public is likely to turn to hysterical measures. Unless slower and sounder methods of reform are worked out and applied there may be a demand that automobiles be so manufactured that high speeds are impossible. Thirty-three thousand deaths a year due to traffic accidents is enough to cause the nation to pause and wonder if such a slaughter cannot be avoided. It amounts to more than the casualties of a minor war.

Affected by Gulf Stream

Generally the Gulf stream does not affect the eastern shore of Maryland, because the prevailing winds there are off-shore and not on-shore. Occasionally, however, and for short periods, the wind is on-shore. At these times, especially during the winter, the temperature of the air obviously is a little warmer, owing to the Gulf stream, than it would otherwise be.

If a man instantly turned his ears and mind away, the assault would be easily repulsed; but as soon as he opens his ears so far as to dwell upon and dally with temptation, he is already well-nigh conquered, and the strife is at the hardest.—John Tauler.

Glorious Welcome for Freshmen

COMMITTEES working months in preparation, last week staged a most glorious welcome ceremony for the freshmen at the University of Minnesota, the program lasting a week, getting them acquainted with each other, with upper classmen, with instructors and in fact everything concerned with the institution. These get-togethers and other social events did much to banish that homesick feeling which assails the freshie when transplanted into new surroundings.

It convinced the freshman that the great university has a warm place in its heart for him, if one may use such a metaphor. The week's program served as an "ice breaker," crushing any spirit of cold reserve which tradition says armors the upper classmen.

More than 1,500 newly enrolled men students flocked to the men's mixer in the Minnesota Union on Friday night. There were boxing bouts, band music, special acts, short talks, etc. Coach Crisler told of the time when he arrived at the University of Chicago and he felt so lonely and neglected that he nearly packed up and went home again. He stressed as a contrast the value of the week of welcoming as prepared at the University of Minnesota.

Freshmen co-eds gathered in Shevlin hall for their program. Saturday night the field house was transformed into a carnival with more fun than a country circus. Not a freshie was a wall flower.

Given such a start at the university every freshman was in fine shape this morning to commence his studies and to survive the ordeal of his first year.

Minnesota Has Three Teams, and Then Some

"HAS Minnesota a team this year?"

What a superfluous question. This grand old university of the North whose athletic destinies and especially its football are in the hands of Fritz Crisler, has three teams and then some.

All the state thrilled when it saw three distinct teams in action against South Dakota State, three teams reflecting the Crisler feints, attacks and defensive, and winning 48 to 0. Never before has Minnesota seen a coach make wholesale substitutions of a team at a time. The first quarter saw the first team in action with a rather weak line. The second period with the second team substituted brought in touchdowns and the line held better. The third quarter found the first team back, profiting by seeing the others in action, and the last quarter brought the third stringers into action.

Rockne has his shock troops and regulars, but no coach has flashed three teams into action like Crisler and it took old grads and newcomers by surprise. And such a wealth of material! It brought out a McDougall who plunged his way to two touchdowns, a lad so slight in physique that Spears would never have given him a chance.

Next day many saw the Red Jackets battle the Chicago Cardinals to a 7 to 7 tie. It was old time foundation football, mass plays, line attacks. Once in a while Joesting or Nydahl would break through and a flash of color was Pape's sprint to a touchdown. The Cardinals did not uncork any open play until the last few minutes when their aerial attack opened.

IN the last analysis the problem of safety on the roads boils down to the human factor. An unsafe driver is unsafe behind the tightest brakes and the best mechanism ever evolved. A good driver is a minor peril even though his car be defective; he will know its weaknesses and make allowance for them.

Nor is more speed the danger it is often supposed to be, nor is youth so dangerous as inexperienced old age. Connecticut permits children of 16 to drive and has no speed limit, merely barring "unreasonable" driving. That state has shown an actual reduction in its fatality rate last year. Many state reports indicate that the older driver gets into more accidents than "reckless youth."

The worst accident rates are in states which do not require a thorough examination of applicants for a driver's license. The menace arises because of people who should not be allowed to operate machines.

If the reckless drivers are not eliminated, if killings continue to mount in such appalling measure as in this last year, the public is likely to turn to hysterical measures. BIG TEN CONFERENCE FOOTBALL OPENS SEASON SATURDAY

OHIO STATE AND MINNESOTA ARE SERIOUS THREATS

NORTHWESTERN AND PURDUE CONSIDERED JOINT FAVORITES FOR TITLE

BUCKEYES AND GOPHERS MADE IMPRESSIVE SHOWINGS LAST SATURDAY

By DIXON STEWART
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Chicago, Sept. 29.—Big Ten conference football teams today resumed practice for the formal opening of the 1930 season Saturday, with Ohio State and Minnesota recognized as serious threats to the championship hopes held by Northwestern and Purdue, joint favorites for the title.

The Buckeyes and Gophers were included among the five conference teams which played preliminary games Saturday and made impressive showings. All members of the league will see action this week, games being scheduled as follows:

Northwestern vs. Tulane, at Evanston.

Purdue vs. Baylor at Lafayette.

Ohio State vs. Indiana at Columbus.

Minnesota vs. Vanderbilt at Minneapolis.

Illinois vs. Iowa State at Urbana.

Michigan vs. Michigan State, at Ann Arbor.

Wisconsin vs. Carlton at Madison.

Chicago vs. Hillsdale and Ripon, at Chicago.

Iowa vs. Oklahoma A. & M. at Iowa City.

Ohio State displayed a powerful attack in downing Mt. Union Saturday and is expected to take an early lead over rival title contenders this week by defeating Indiana in the first game after conference foes.

Cochran Willman apparently has developed a number of capable sophomore players and with Wes Fessler, 1929 all-American end, leading the attack from fullback, the Ohio State variation of the Warner offense promises to cause plenty of trouble for the Buckeyes' 1930 opponents.

Indiana showed little Saturday to cause Ohio worry. Ross and Hughes, veteran backs, performed capably, but the Hoosier line is inexperienced and Coach Pat Page has a big task cut out in developing a winning eleven.

The other games this week are classified as "practice" battles, but except for Wisconsin and Chicago the Big Ten teams are not meeting "set up" opponents.

Northwestern's championship aspirations will be tested by Tulane, 1929 southern champions, while Minnesota entertains Vanderbilt, another of the south's leaders. The Gophers flashed a diversified attack in taking their opener, 48 to 0, from South Dakota last week and gave promise of being one of the Big Ten's leading contenders.

Purdue, 1929 Big Ten champion, expects a hard battle from Baylor's veteran team. The Texans have had several weeks more practice than Purdue and are "keyed" for victory.

Michigan meets a traditional foe in Michigan State and the Wolverines weak showing against Michigan Normal Saturday eliminated any overconfidence which may have existed at Ann Arbor.

Illinois' green team is faced with the threat of a setback at the hands of Iowa State's veteran squad and the Oklahoma Aggies are expected to give Iowa a hard battle.

B. H. S., WADENA FAIL TO SCORE

TWO SCHOOLS SHOW EQUAL STRENGTH IN OPENING GAME AT WADENA SATURDAY

Braierd high school and Wadena high went scoreless in their first football game of the season Saturday afternoon at Wadena.

The game found two teams of equal strength, playing safe football. The teams demonstrated superior ability to that which might be expected for an opener.

TRAGEDY ENDS A BRILLIANT CAREER IN MARINE CORPS

Washington, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—The police theory that Lieut. Col. Richard Bennett Creedy, 49, prominent marine corps officer, brutally hacked his wife to the point of death and then killed himself was disputed by his family today, throwing a cloud of mystery over a crime which ended one of the most brilliant careers in the marine corps. Creedy's sister-in-law, Mrs. Donald B. Creedy, of Baltimore, said today it was the belief of the family that her brother-in-law was murdered and his wife brutally attacked with a hatchet in their apartment at the Mayflower hotel Sunday.

INFORMAL RECEPTION GIVEN GREATEST AMATEUR GOLFER OF AMERICA

ANXIOUS TO GET BACK AMONG HIS LAW BOOKS, WORKING AT PROFESSION

Atlanta, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Robert Tyre "Bobby" Jones, Jr., came home to a quiet, almost informal reception today, anxious to get back among his law books.

There will be little or no golf for Jones for some weeks if he follows his announced intention.

The board of directors of the Atlanta Athletic club—whose colors he carried triumphantly through the only "grand slam" of golf in the history of the game—were on hand at the station to give a slight touch of formality.

Atlanta gave Bobby a princely welcome home when he won the open at Interlachen. Everything that could be done was done then, so that today was just a bit anti-climactic just another lawyer going back to work.

LATEST BETS OFFERED ON THE WORLD SERIES

New York, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Jack Doyle Broadway betting commissioner, quoted 7 to 10 odds against the Philadelphia Athletics today to win the world series. The St. Louis Cardinals had odds of 11 to 10 quoted against them to win the series.

COUNTY CLOSED TO PHEASANT SHOOTING

OPEN COUNTIES DIVIDED INTO 3 DIVISIONS REGARDING LENGTH OF SHOOT

The State Game and Fish Department issued the following bulletin today regarding pheasant hunting in Minnesota:

The restrictions in the counties that are to be open for the taking of ring-neck pheasants have been placed wholly for the purpose of advancing the cause of better shooting. After having had a thorough investigation made, the department has asked the governor to sign an order, which is the department's recommendation, placing restrictions in those counties in which there are fewer birds than are found in the counties which will remain open for the full eighteen days. Crow Wing county is closed to shooting of pheasants this year.

Such regulations have been issued in the hope of having a short open season annually rather than having an alternate season on ring-neck pheasants.

The law permits the taking of three male ring-neck pheasants in one day and prohibits the taking of hen pheasants. One may have twelve such birds in their possession and are limited to the killing of fifteen such birds during the entire season.

Five-day open season on pheasants, Oct. 15 to 19 inclusive—Anoka, Washington, Dakota, Goodhue, Olmsted, Winona, Fillmore and Houston.

Twelve-day open season on pheasants, Oct. 15 to 26 inclusive—Traverse, Grant, Bigstone, Stevens, Swift, Chippewa, Pope, Kandiyohi, Nicollet, Renneville, Meeker, Wright, McLeod, Carver, Sibley, Scott, Hennepin, Le Sueur and Rice.

Eighteen-day open season on pheasants, Oct. 15 to Nov. 1 inclusive—Lac Qui Parle, Yellow Medicine, Lincoln, Lyon, Pipestone, Murray, Rock, Nobles, Jackson, Cottonwood, Redwood, Brown, Watwan, Martin, Faribault, Blue Earth, Mower, Freeborn, Dodge, Steele and Waseca.

Pawn Shop Man is Recipient of $700 Worth of Microscopes

St. Paul, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Luis Lazarus, pawn shop proprietor, had $700 worth of microscopes today and the police had a mystery, but the officers weren't quite sure what the mystery was.

A stranger came into Lazarus' pawnshop and deposited five wooden boxes gently on the floor. "A man told me to leave them here," the stranger said and walked away.

Fearful that the boxes might contain bombs, Lazarus notified police. With due caution the boxes were opened and found to contain high-powered microscopes. Police are investigating.

"It may be just a mistake. It may be a robbery. We don't know just what it is," they said.

FINAL GAMES SUNDAY PROVIDED MANY SURPRISES

BABE RUTH PITCHES YANKEES TO 9-3 VICTORY OVER BOSTON RED SOX

DIZZY DEAN, 20-YEAR ROOKIE, PITCHES CARDS TO 3-1 WIN OVER THE PIRATES

(By United Press)
The baseball season is over and preparations opened today for the world series between the Philadelphia Athletics and St. Louis Cardinals, beginning at Philadelphia Wednesday.

The final games Sunday provided many surprises. Babe Ruth, after 10 years in the outfield, returned to the mound to pitch the New York Yankees to a 9-3 victory over the Boston Red Sox.

Dizzy Dean, 20-year-old rookie from the Houston Texas League club, made his major league debut by pitching the Cardinals to a 3-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates, allowing three hits.

Washington won the season's series from Philadelphia, 12 games to 10, by defeating the Athletics, 9-4. General Crowder won his 19th game of the season.

After spotting Cincinnati a 9-run lead, the Chicago Cubs overtook the Reds to win, 13-11.

Carl Hubbell won his second game in two days as the New York Giants clinched third place with a 7-6 victory over the Phillies. Fred Leach's single in the tenth inning drove home the winning run.

Hollis Thurston's hitting and pitching enabled Brooklyn to win from the Boston Braves, 6-3.

In the other American League games the Chicago White Sox won from Detroit, 10-7, and St. Louis and Cleveland divided a double-header, the Browns winning, 11-5, and the Indians winning 15-5.

Cheer and Jeer Gleaners

By HARDIN BURNLEY

WORLD Series strains have produced among other things a wondrous array of so-called heroes and goats. In the glare of baseball's ultra-spotlight (the 1930 "Serious" starts Wednesday) not a few of the game's established heroes have been turned into goats while, on the other hand, many a rather mediocre big leaguer has risen to supernatural heights.

Remember, neither Cobb nor Wagner seemed like superstars in World Series and in at least two of them the incomparable Ruth was not so hot. Hornsby was a raucous bust in the 1929 classic. Then recall some of the routine players—Johnny Rawlings of the Giants, who was a combination of Lejos and Houdini with the magic of his record base play during the 1921 Series; good ol' Hank Gowdy, who was the thumping wonder and a catching paragon when the Braves beat the Athletics four straight in 1914; and many others.

Memories are still fresh involving last year's Athletics-Cubs classic, especially of that seventh inning in the fourth game, when Philadelphia overcame an 8-run Chicago lead by crowding in 10 runs to win. Who can ever forget the rugged and courageous "Hack" Wilson losing two long hits in the glaring sun—and carrying on this past season in such superstellar style?

As to last year's Series heroes "Bing" Miller, "A" right fielder, will be long remembered for the long single that scored Al Simmons with the run which finally conquered the Cubs, 3-2...all those Mackjian runs registering in one of the most potent batting rallies in baseball history. Miller hit for .368 and made but one error during those five games. Simmons, Foxx, Coghane and Pitcher Guy Ehmke in particular were among the great heroes of that blue ribbon event; but that final blow, topping off an excellent record, made the modest "Bing" the Sport Bug's chief idol in the 1929 classic.

It is painful but pertinent to recall the leading goat of that Series, more fallible even than Hornsby and Wilson. That was "Woody" English, the Cub kid shortstop, who batted for but .190 and made four costly errors. English did not fold up, however. This year he's sparked at short for the Cubs.

BIG TEN CONFERENCE FOOTBALL OPENS SEASON SATURDAY

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Chicago, Sept. 29.—Big Ten conference football teams today resumed practice for the formal opening of the 1930 season Saturday, with Ohio State and Minnesota recognized as serious threats to the championship hopes held by Northwestern and Purdue, joint favorites for the title.

The Buckeyes and Gophers were included among the five conference teams which played preliminary games Saturday and made impressive showings. All members of the league will see action this week, games being scheduled as follows:

Northwestern vs. Tulane, at Evanston.

Purdue vs. Baylor at Lafayette.

Ohio State vs. Indiana at Columbus.

Minnesota vs. Vanderbilt at Minneapolis.

Illinois vs. Iowa State at Urbana.

Michigan vs. Michigan State, at Ann Arbor.

Wisconsin vs. Carlton at Madison.

Iowa vs. Oklahoma A. & M. at Iowa City.

Ohio State displayed a powerful attack in downing Mt. Union Saturday and is expected to take an early lead over rival title contenders this week by defeating Indiana in the first game between conference foes.

Coach Willaman apparently has developed a number of capable sophomore players and with Wes Fesler, 1929 all-American end, leading the attack from fullback, the Ohio State variation of the Warner offense promises to cause plenty of trouble for the Buckeyes' 1930 opponents.

Indiana showed little Saturday to cause Ohio worry. Ross and Hughes, veteran backs, performed capably, but the Hoosier line is inexperienced and Coach Pat Page has a big task cut out in developing a winning eleven.

The other games this week are classified as "practice" battles, but except for Wisconsin and Chicago the Big Ten teams are not meeting "set up" opponents.

Northwestern's championship aspirations will be tested by Tulane, 1929 southern champions, while Minnesota entertains Vanderbilt, another of the south's leaders. The Gophers flashed a diversified attack in taking their opener, 48 to 0, from South Dakota last week and gave promise of being one of the Big Ten's leading contenders.

Purdue, 1929 Big Ten champion, expects a hard battle from Baylor's veteran team. The Texans have had several weeks more practice than Purdue and are "keyed" for victory.

Michigan meets a traditional foe in Michigan State and the Wolverines weak showing against Michigan Normal Saturday eliminated any overconfidence which may have existed at Ann Arbor.

Illinois' green team is faced with the threat of a setback at the hands of Iowa State's veteran squad and the Oklahoma Aggies are expected to give Iowa a hard battle.

B. H. S., WADENA FAIL TO SCORE

TWO SCHOOLS SHOW EQUAL STRENGTH IN OPENING GAME AT WADENA SATURDAY

Braierd high school and Wadena high school were scoreless in their first football game of the season Saturday afternoon at Wadena.

The game found two teams of equal strength playing safe football. The teams demonstrated superior ability to that which might be expected for an opener.

TRAGEDY ENDS A BRILLIANT CAREER IN MARINE CORPS

Washington, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—The police theory that Lieut. Col. Richard Bennett Creecy, 49, prominent marine corps officer, brutally hacked his wife to the point of death and then killed himself was disputed by his family today, throwing a cloud of mystery over a crime which ended one of the most brilliant careers in the marine corps. Creecy's sister-in-law, Mrs. Donald B. Creecy, of Baltimore, said today it was the belief of the family that her brother-in-law was murdered and his wife brutally attacked with a hatchet in their apartment at the Mayflower hotel Sunday.

BOBBY JONES IS HOME AGAIN AT ATLANTA, GEORGIA

INFORMAL RECEPTION GIVEN GREATEST AMATEUR GOLFER OF AMERICA

ANXIOUS TO GET BACK AMONG HIS LAW BOOKS, WORKING AT PROFESSION

Atlanta, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Robert Tyre "Bobby" Jones, Jr., came home to a quiet, almost informal reception today, anxious to get back among his law books.

There will be little or no golf for Jones for some weeks if he follows his announced attention.

The board of directors of the Atlanta Athletic club—whose colors he carried triumphantly through the only "grand slam" of golf in the history of the game—were on hand at the station to give a slight touch of formality.

Atlanta gave Bobby a princely welcome home when he won the open at Interlachen. Everything that could be done was done then, so that today was just a bit anti-climactic just another lawyer going back to work.

LATEST BETS OFFERED ON THE WORLD SERIES

New York, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Jack Doyle Broadway betting commissioner, quoted 7 to 10 odds against the Philadelphia Athletics today to win the world series. The St. Louis Cardinals had odds of 11 to 10 quoted against them to win the series.

Other odds follow:
To win first game,
4 to 5 against Athletics.
1 to 1 against Cardinals.

To win four straight:
9 to 1 against Athletics.
15 to 1 against Athletics.

Home runs:
7 to 10 against any named player making one homer in series.
11 to 5 against any named player making two homers in series.

BAD WEATHER DELAYS AMEL'S OCEAN FLIGHT

Roosevelt Field, N. Y., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Capt. Roy W. Amel, Minnesota aviator who plans a non-stop trans-Atlantic flight to Paris or beyond, announced today he would not take off until tomorrow because of weather conditions.

BANK TELLER IS SLUGGED, ROBBED

Fort Worth, Tex., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—R. E. Gosnell, 25, teller in a Phoenix, Ariz., bank, was slugged and robbed of $35 and his automobile then thrown on a side road near the Fort Worth-Weatherford highway today. Tourists found Gosnell walking in a daze on the main road a few miles this side of Weatherford.

COUNTY CLOSED TO PHEASANT SHOOTING

OPEN COUNTIES DIVIDED INTO 3 DIVISIONS REGARDING LENGTH OF SHOOT

The State Game and Fish Department issued the following bulletin today regarding pheasant hunting in Minnesota:

The restrictions in the counties that are to be open for the taking of ring-neck pheasants have been placed wholly for the purpose of advancing the cause of better shooting. After having had a thorough investigation made, the department has asked the governor to sign an order, which is the department's recommendation, placing restrictions in those counties in which there are fewer birds than are found in the counties which will remain open for the full eighteen days. Crow Wing county is closed to shooting of pheasants this year.

Such regulations have been issued in the hope of having a short open season annually rather than having an alternate season on ring-neck pheasants.

The law permits the taking of three male ring-neck pheasants in one day and prohibits the taking of hen pheasants. One may have twelve such birds in their possession and are limited to the killing of fifteen such birds during the entire season.

Five-day open season on pheasants, Oct. 15 to 19 inclusive—Anoka, Washington, Dakota, Goodhue, Olmsted, Winona, Fillmore and Houston.

Twelve-day open season on pheasants, Oct. 15 to 26, inclusive—Traverse, Grant, Bigstone, Stevens, Swift, Chippewa, Pope, Kandiyohi, Nicollet, Renneville, Meeker, Wright, McLeod, Carver, Sibley, Scott, Hennepin, Le Sueur and Rice.

Eighteen-day open season on pheasants, Oct. 15 to Nov. 1, inclusive—Lac Qui Parle, Yellow Medicine, Lincoln, Lyon, Pipestone, Murray, Rock, Nobles, Jackson, Cottonwood, Redwood, Brown, Watonwan, Martin, Faribault, Blue Earth, Mower, Freeborn, Dodge, Steele and Waseca.

There will be no shooting this season on native partridge or ruffed grouse and there is no open season provided for prairie chicken or sharp-tailed grouse. There is no open season on Hungarian partridge.

the Cubs, 3-2...all those Mackian runs registering in one of the most potent batting rallies in baseball history. Miller hit for .368 and made but one error during those five games. Simmons, Foxx, Coghane and Pitcher Guy Ehmke is particular were among the great heroes of that blue ribbon event; but that final blow, topping off an excellent record, made the modest "Bing" the Sport Bug's chief idol in the 1929 classic.

It is painful but pertinent to recall the leading goat of that Series, more fallible even than Hornsby and Wilson. That was "Woody" English, the Cub kid shortstop, who batted for but .190 and made four costly errors. English did not fold up, however. This year he's sparked at short for the Cubs.

WORLD Series strains have produced among other things: a wondrous array of so-called heroes and goats. In the glare of baseball's ultra-spotlight (the 1930 "Serious" starts Wednesday) not a few of the game's established heroes have been turned into goats while, on the other hand, many a rather mediocre big leaguer has risen to supernal heights.

Remember, neither Cobb nor Wagner seemed like superstars in World Series and in at least two of them the incomparable Ruth was not so hot. Hornsby was a raucous bust in the 1929 classic. Then recall some of the routine players—Johnny Rawlings of the Giants, who was a combination of Legols and Houdini with the magic of his second base play during the 1921 Series; good ol' Hank Gowdy, who was the thumping wonder and

CHICAGO KEEPS ON WITH ITS DRIVE AGAINST CRIME

DECENCY'S FORCES ADVANCE ALONG SEVERAL FRONTS TODAY

NEWSPAPERS ASSERT GANGSTERS ARE PLANNING A COUNTERCHARGE

Chicago, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Decency's forces advanced along several fronts today in Chicago's organized drive against crime, but into the midst of the unprecedented activities was hurled newspaper charges that gangsters were planning a countercharge by making a monster "payoff" to corrupt officials.

Among the activities scheduled for the day was the transfer of a number of detectives in an effort to eliminate the spy in the department who gave the Scarface Al Capone gang police orders before police received them themselves.

Two of the city's 26 "public enemies," Terry Druggan and "Mike de Pike" Heitler, were under guard in hospitals. Druggan was to appear for trial on charges of evading the income tax laws. Heitler was wanted as a vagrant. Three other "enemies" were under bonds. Others, including Capone, were in hiding, their homes surrounded by policemen with orders to arrest the gangsters on sight and charge them with being vagrants under the strict old law of 1874.

At the suggestion of Judge John P. McGorty, one of the jurists who started the organized drive against gangsters, a squad of police was commissioned to attend labor union election and see to it that no racketeers attended and forced their way into the offices by threats of violence. Racketeers under arrest told the judge last week that was the way they gained control of the unions.

The gang leaders, harrassed on all sides by the forces of law and order, afraid even to go home, planned to stop all these activities in their customary way, by use of money. The Herald and Examiner, charged.

"Notice to corrupt police, politicians and public officials!" the newspaper stated.

"Gang land will pay off next Wednesday in that part of the near North Side commonly designated as the East Chicago Avenue police district.

"There will be bonuses for those who have been especially attentive to gangland's interests during the widespread attack on 'public enemies.'

"Ah, bonuses!" "That is the 'syndicate's' answer to decency's drive against the organized killer, bootleggers, vice mongers and dope peddlers that infest the city.

"This corrupt scheme is being applied in the near North Side because that is where the fight is hottest, the old domain of 'Bugs' Moran and the Aiello brothers, recently chased out when Scarface Al Capone organized the underworld under the slogan 'all for Al and Al for all.'

"It is predicted that by pay day an extra $100,000 of graft will be ready."

ELMER S. HUCKINS BECOMES SUBJECT OF COURT PROCEDURE AGAIN TODAY

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—The rocket-like ascent of Elmer S. Huckins from the proprietorship of a country grocery store to a position of wealth and luxury; his subsequent fall to poverty; and the effects of both on hundreds of investors became the subject of court procedure again today.

Huckins, whose name has become as familiar to midwesterners as that of Ponzie was when a scheme for paying interest to old investors from capital paid in by new ones was disclosed, is charged with obtaining money under false pretenses.

Already his son, George E. Huckins, is under conviction on a similar charge and awaits supreme court action on an appeal. The father-son enterprise attracted investors from a dozen states to put millions of dollars in the strange business that numerous legal investigators have failed to explain.

Investors were told their money was earning as high as 52 per cent in the sale of cigar "seconds." Cigar manufacturers discounted the possibility of such dividends from this business, however.

The owner of a luxurious estate at Hancock, Wis., a racing stable, a ball club and more than one automobile, Huckins found legal difficulties costly and was unable for several weeks to provide $10,000 bail pending trial.

CHINESE CIVIL WAR FLARES UP

RENEWAL OF HOSTILITIES IS THREATENED, IN SPITE OF MANCHURIA INTERVENING

Peiping, China, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—The Chinese civil war, which appeared to have been ended last week by the intervention of Manchurian forces in behalf of the national government at Hankow, threatened a renewal of hostilities today.

Gov. Yen Hsi-Shan of Shansi province, who retired as head of the rebel northern government when the Manchurians occupied Peiping, announced at Tayan-Fu the northern regime would be re-established and Shansi troops would oppose the nationalists.

Yen Hsi-Shan's statement was issued at Tayan-Fu, which he said would be made the new capital of the northern coalition forces. The northern government was centered at Peiping until last week when the Manchurian armies of Chang Hsieli-Liang announced their intervention in behalf of the national government to end the war and their "peace army" occupied Peiping.

Yen said the Chinese radical leader, Wang Chiang-Wei, and his associates had gathered at Tayan-Fu to set up the new regime and continue the struggle against the Nanking government of Chiang Kai-Shek. He charged that Chiang Kai-Shek "has refused to compromise" and announced that, as a result of the refusal, the warfare would be resumed.

Shansi troops are proceeding to the battle fronts in Honans province, he said, to assist Feng Yu-Hsiang, the "Christian general," in his warfare against the nationalists. Yen claimed that Feng's armies were successfully resisting the advance of the nationalist forces northward.

Births Show a Decline of 78,063 in Year.

Washington.—There is a premium on babies in the United States. Last year 78,063 fewer children were born than in 1928, bearing out a theory which has become yearly more pronounced since 1921, the vital statistics division of the Commerce department reports. And this, according to Dr. T. F. Murphy, chief statistician of the division, is the price of modern social standards which move Americans to settle in cities, to share, man and wife alike, in the rigors of earning a living and to practice the principles of birth control.

To no one of these factors, nor to all combined, however, would Dr. Murphy attribute the declining birth rate which last year alone reduced the number of babies born in every 1,000 of population from 19.7 in 1928 to 19.

Due to Many Factors.

The cause underlying the surprising trend is much more complex and due to a combination of factors so involved as to become almost impossible to interpret, he believes.

He thinks that America's restrictive immigration laws are in a large measure responsible, citing statistics to show that the birthrate has always been higher among the immigrant class, the foreign-born population.

Doctor Murphy observes also that Americans are marrying later in life than in the days of the nation's youth, and that the number of marriages are decreasing year by year.

"We are becoming a nation of cliff dwellers," he said. "People are leaving the rural districts and going to work in the cities. They marry, both members of the union continue to work for a living, and there is neither

CONFESSES HE HELD UP S. D. BANK

STATE BUREAU OF CRIMINAL APPREHENSION ROUNDS UP DIETRICH AND 3 COMPANIONS

St. Paul, Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—With the confession of Walter Dietrich, 26, that he had participated in the Harrisburg, S. D., bank holdup, operatives of the state bureau of criminal apprehension today claimed to have rounded up the last of a quartet of bank raiders.

Dietrich was arrested by Sheriff Paul Felix of Morrison county when he visited the home of Walter's brother-in-law near Swanville. Another brother, Harry, 22 is in jail at Ivonhoe, Minn., where he will go on trial tomorrow on charge of robbing the Verdi, Minn., bank.

Walter was brought to St. Paul for questioning by General W. F. Rhinow, superintendent of the Minnesota bureau of criminal apprehension. The young man confessed that he was one of the four who held up the South Dakota bank. He will be taken to Canton, S. D., where he will be tried on a bank robbery charge.

The young man said he acted as outside man in the robbery at Harrisburg and received $300, according to the confession he made to criminal apprehension operatives. He denied he was connected with the Verdi robbery.

Leslie Charter and Earl Davis, two other members of the Harrisburg raiders, are under sentence in South Dakota.

ALABAMA GOVERNOR SETS MARTIAL LAW

DUE TO THREATS OF VIOLENCE AGAINST NEGRO PRISONER AT HUNTSVILLE

Huntsville, Ala., Sept. 29.—(U.P.)—Gov. Bibb Graves ordered martial law declared here today, due to threats of mob violence against G. H. Henderson, negro, confined in the county jail on suspicion of murdering H. E. Ross and wounding his wife.

Major Raymond Jones, commanding officer of the 127th battalion, a national guard engineering unit, was ordered to take charge of the situation. Major Jones ordered out a company of the battalion, equipped with machine guns, tear gas bombs and rifles.

Local militiamen guarded the jail during the night, after a mob of 550 men gathered near the jail. The mob dispersed after warning shots were fired, but feeling here continued intense.

Ross, a Huntsville business man and his wife were shot by a negro whom they caught burglarizing their home. Mrs. Ross failed, however, positively to identify Henderson as the assailant.

DRUNK OBJECTS TO FOOD, BEATS FATHER

Repetition of Former Assault on Him
by Son Told by Aged Parent

PULLED HIM OUT OF BED

Eugene Davidson, Father Beater, Held to District Court on Serious Charge

Treated a menace to the city, Eugene Davidson, father beater, faced the municipal court this morning and was held to district court on a second degree assault charge arising from doing bodily injury to his 69 year old parent, John Davidson, on September 23.

"He came home drunk about midnight, looked around for food, then came into my bedroom, pulled the covers from me, started striking me, kicked me and threw a dish at me," the elderly Davidson told Judge J. H. Warner.

"He has been tantalizing me often, calling me the worst things a man ever heard. It is not the first time he has struck me. He is just as bad when he is sober as when he is drunk," the old man said.

The defendant waived introducing any evidence in his behalf. He was without counsel.

"I will serve the seven days against me now so it will not be hanging over me when I get through with this," the son told Judge Warner who ordered him back to his cell in city jail for the expiration of his term and set bonds of $500 for his appearance in district court at the fall term.

Unable to meet the bonds Davidson will be transferred to the county jail after the seven days and will be held there awaiting the action of the district court. County Attorney Arthur J. Sullivan will present the case and will seek the full measure of punishment for the crime.

The seven day sentence remaining in the city jail is part of a 12 day suspension from a 60 day imprisonment last spring when Davidson was found guilty of assaulting his aged father. It was granted subject to his good behavior for a year and revoked when he was arrested on the present charge.

The alleged assault on September 23 was similar to the one he was found guilty of last May in that Davidson used the same excuse for his actions.

Grumbling about the food Davidson threw his father outside after striking him and hurled the food out after him.

On the night of September 23 the father said today his son couldn't find food he wanted and took that excuse for beating him up.

The father told the court that Eugene picked up a lamp on the table stood over him and threatened to smash it in his face.

Eugene's fighting instincts come from back in his early youth, residents who knew of him then said. These people termed him as a bully in school, a boy who wanted to beat up on everyone else.

His father said he associated with bootleggers from the Twin Cities.

SOLBERG FREED BY AITKIN COUNTY JURY

Brainerd Attorney Wins Case for Man Charged With Slaying Bride of Month

ONLY ONE BALLOT TAKEN

Temporary Insanity Blamed for Act of Disabled War Veteran; Jury Out Half an Hour

Bengt Solberg, returned to his farm near Veteransville in Aitkin county today absolved of blame in connection with the shooting of his bride of a month at his mother-in-law's home, September 11.

Saturday night an Aitkin county jury took the case, had supper, deliberated for half an hour and taking one ballot returned a verdict of not guilty.

The jury based their decision on evidence introduced by Donald I. Ryan, Brainerd, attorney for Solberg, to show that the defendant a disabled world war veteran committed the act while temporarily insane. The man admitted shooting his wife claiming he did not realize what he was doing.

The shooting occurred one week after his bride had left his home to go and live with her mother. According to the evidence he appeared at her mother's home, carrying a .32 calibre automatic and killed his wife after an argument.

Pequot

Rev. Oscar Rem of Pequot is $437 richer today.

Sunday afternoon the popular Lutheran pastor of four congregations, Pequot, Pine River, Maple Hill and Graff, was presented with that sum in a purse as a surprise from the members at a community picnic attended by over 500 at the Pequot church.

The congregations took this means

precipation of his work during the past of expressing to Rev. Rem their appreciation. The money is in addition to his regular salary.

Presentation of the purse was made by Rev. O. L. Bolstad, Brainerd, during a fine program presided over by F. T. Gustafson.

The program included songs of those assembled, piano duets by Mrs. Berg and Miss Estelene Enes, a violin solo by J. C. Norein accompanied by Miss Enes on the piano, songs by the male quartet composed of Martin Havik, Oscar Gradvahl, Ernest Moberg, Elmer Erickson and talks by Rev. Bolstad, Rev. Rem, and County Attorney Arthur J. Sullivan who spoke on community cooperation.

The members decided to make the picnic an annual event and appointed F. T. Gustafson, J. B. Enes and Ludwig Mathison committee on preparations.

The SEA BRIDE

By BEN AMES WILLIAMS

THE ROMANCE OF AN EVENTFUL WHALING CRUISE

CHAPTER XXXI.

BRANDER understood the one-eyed man.

"What's wrong, Mauger?" he asked in a friendly tone.

Mauger chuckled mirthfully, deprecatingly.

"Don't want you should get mad," he protested.

"Of course not. What is it?"

"There's chatter forward," said Mauger. "They're talking dirt."

Brander's voice fell.

"What?"

"Slater was the first. Others now. Dirt?"

Brander looked about the deck; there was no one within hearing.

"What kind of dirt?" he asked quietly.

Mauger looked up and grinned unhappily and apologetically.

"You know," he said. "You and her—"

Brander's eyes hardened.

"Thanks, Mauger," he said under his breath.

He walked away from where the one-eyed man was scrubbing.

Mauger rose on his knees to look after the fourth mate with something like worship in his eyes.

Brander went aft with his problem. A real problem! Faith besmirched! He would have cut off his right hand to prevent it, but cutting off his right hand would have done no good whatever.

He would have fought the whole crew of the Sally single-handed; but that would have done even less good than the other. You cannot permanently gag a man by jamming your fist in his mouth. And Brander knew it; so that while he boiled with anger and disgust, he held himself in check, and tried to consider what should be done.

He must do something, but it was no easy task to determine what that something was to be.

Brander considered the members of the crew—the foremast hands. Slater he knew—an evil man. Others there were like him, either from weakness or sheer malignant festering of the soul. But there were some who were men, some who were decent; some who would fight the foul talk, wisely or unwisely as the case might be; some who had eyes to see the goodness of Faith and hearts to trust her.

Brander's task was to help these men. He could not himself go into the fore'st and strike; to do so would only spread the filth of words abroad. But one thing he could do. He saw the way.

He must avoid Faith. It would not be easy since their lives must lie in the cabin. He must avoid Faith, avoid speaking to her again in the most casual way, avoid being alone with her. That much he must do, and something more. The crew would be spying on them now, watching, whispering. He must go further. He must give them proof that their whispers were ill-founded.

It was this word of Mauger's that led Brander to a determination which was to threaten him with ruin in the end. It was this word of Mauger's that determined Brander to give himself to the crew—to keep some of them always in sight of him; to force them, if he could, to see for themselves that he had little talk with Faith and few words with her. That was what Brander planned to do.

He worked out the details carefully. When he was on deck he must keep in their sight, and he must keep himself on deck every hour of the day save when he went below for meals. He decided to do more. The nights were warm and pleasant. He had a hammock swung under the boathouse and planned to sleep there; he laid

open his whole life to their prying eyes. Let them see for themselves.

He was satisfied with this arrangement, at last. It was the best that could be done. He put it into action at once, and he saw within three days' time that Slater and the others had noticed, and were wondering and questioning.

The men were puzzled; the cabin was puzzled, and no one was more puzzled by Brander's new way of life than Dan'l Tobey. He was puzzled, but he was at the same time elated. For he perceived that Brander had given him a weapon, a handle to take hold of. And Dan'l was not slow to take advantage of it.

They were working westward at the time, killing whales as they went. Ahead were the Bay of Islands and Port Russell; southward the Solander Rock and the Solander Grounds, where all the big bull whales of the seven seas flock to their clubs. A cow is seldom or never seen there; the bulls are slain by scores. Toward this hunttle men, sir." Dan'l said reluctantly. "I bade them keep their tongues still."

"What manner of foolish talk?"

Dan'l would not meet Noll's eyes.

"Why, lies," he said. "Chatter."

"I'm not a man to be put off, Dan'l," Noll said heavily. "Speak up, man!"

Dan'l frowned sorrowfully.

"It was just their talk about Mr. Brander and Faith, sir. Lies, as I told you. They shut up when I spoke to them."

"What talk of Brander and my wife?" Noll asked slowly.

Dan'l shook his head.

"You can guess it for yourself, sir. The men have nothing better to do than chatter and gossip like old women. We need another whale to shut their mouths."

"What talk?" Noll repeated.

Dan'l smiled.

"I think too well of Faith and of Brander to say it for you," he insisted.

Noll fell silent, his brows lowering-ground, as famous for its whales as it was infamous for its ugly weather, the Sally Sims was working. They would touch at Port Russell on the way.

Three days before they were likely to make the port, Dan'l made an occasion to have a word with

Noll Wing. Noll was on deck,

Faith and the officers—save Brander,

who was with Mauger forward

—were all below. There was a group of men by the try-works;

and Dan'l strolled that way. He moved inconspicuously, approaching them on the opposite side of the ship; and when he came near

he stopped and seemed to listen.

Noll, aft, was paying him little attention, though Dan'l made sure that the captain saw.

Slater was among the group of men; Dan'l scattered them angrily

and drove them forward together.

When they were gone he went aft

again. As he had expected, Noll asked:

"What was that, Dan'l?"

Dan'l smiled and said it was nothing that mattered; but his suggested that it mattered a great deal. Noll sternly bade him speak.

"It was but the foolish talk of

ing for a space; then he waved

his great hand harshly.

"Bosh!" he said. "Foolishness!"

Dan'l nodded.

"Of course. Nevertheless, I—"

He fell silent; and Noll looked at him acutely.

"You—what?" he asked.

"I don't blame Mr. Brander, you understand," said Dan'l. "But—"

it's in my mind that, being with the crew as much as he is—he should put a stop to it."

Noll's eyes ranged the deck.

Brander was amidstships now; and Mauger was still with him. Mauger was scraping at the rail, cleaning away some traces of soot from the last trying out, under Brander's eye. They were talking together; and Noll frowned.

"You think Mr. Brander is too much with the crew?" he said to Dan'l.

Dan'l shook his head.

"No, not too much. It's as well for an officer to be on good terms with the men. Leastwise, some think so. I was never one to do it. But—no, not too much. Nevertheless, he's much with them."
